Our Little Learners theme this week was 'Outer Space'. Mr Cook and Miss Lieschke had a great time with everyone exploring all things Outer Space which included colouring astronauts and aliens and making their own star. # Corowa Connects with Ms Stanton

Fun Day is tomorrow – what a great way to finish off Week 7. Mr Cook and myself will be collecting the $5 from students at the front gate in the morning. Stage 3 have worked tirelessly to make sure everyone has a great day and should be very proud of themselves.

A reminder from the canteen – there will be NO LUNCH ORDERS tomorrow, just the pre-ordered sausage sandwiches.

A little reminder for bike & scooter riders

We have a lot of students riding to school – which is great to see because they are getting exercise and making the most of the beautiful weather, however, we would like to remind them that:

- There are pedestrians out there walking in the mornings and afternoons as well and we have had a few calls asking students to ring their bell or call out if they are coming up behind someone
- Staff are not on duty until 8:30am and some of our students obviously ride really quickly and are arriving super early: we would like them to plan their departure time so they are not too early.

A week with Willow

Our Willow Walkers were VERY excited to see Willow at school this week. She has really enjoyed the opportunity to sniff around the playground and reconnect without students. She has been very well behaved and the smiles on the faces of our Willow Walkers was great to see – they demonstrated responsibility and care all week.

Thank you Woolworths, Corowa

Some amazing news from our P & C this week – the incredibly generous staff at Woolworths in Corowa have made a donation of $1,000 to the school. This money will be used to support student activities for the rest of what has been an eventful year. On behalf of all our staff and students, I would like to offer our sincerest thanks to the wonderful Woolworths Corowa.

Essential Energy Champions

Every year, Mrs Creamer supports our students to enter the Essential Energy Competition – this year the theme was electrical safety. Yesterday, I had a phone call from the Corporate Marketing Officer of Essential Energy to let me know that we had not received one award, like previous years, but four! We have two major prize winners and two runners-up. Their awesome efforts have earned $2000 for the P&C and rewards for themselves. Watch this space to see who our lucky winners are (we will announce them when their prizes and certificates arrive!)

School Photos

Lots of bright, happy smiles (and some interesting faces from year 6) for school photos yesterday. Jarod from MSP photography is already working on ensuring that all photos are returned and given to parents by the end of the year.

This week's Shout Out!

This week I would like to recognise these three learners who came and shared their writing with me. They showed that they have learnt a lot about sentence structure and using interesting language. The best part of this sharing was their proud smiles and the way they could describe what they had mastered in their learning.

International Men's Day

Tomorrow is International Men's Day, a day to celebrate the positive values and role models men bring to their families and communities and also to focus on men's wellbeing. Take the opportunity this week to spend some time (and say thank you) with a man who has inspired, supported or 'been there' for you and made a positive difference in your lives.

International Children's Day

Saturday is United Nations Children's Day – not a day of celebrating for them, but a day to remind them of their rights and ask them 'what will you do to make the world a better place as you grow into adulthood?' In a world where children are starting to make a difference, I know we have students here who are passionate about the environment, social issues and ethics and in the years to come, we will see them in the media and say 'they went to CPS' – and we will be incredibly proud.

World Hello Day

Hola, habari, ciao, bonjour, kia ora, konichiwa, sawasdee, bongu, hej, xin chao!

Sunday is World Hello Day. There are two Freddo Frogs in my office for the first two students who can come and tell me what ten languages I used to say hello!
